Biography

Paul D. Thomas, born about 1884 in Cleveland, Tennessee, came to El Paso, Texas in the early twentieth century, where he practiced law and later served as judge. He married Lillian Farr. Their son, Paul Farr Thomas, was born on September 15, 1920, and became a real estate broker and prominent farmer and rancher in Fabens, Texas. He graduated from Austin High School in El Paso and Amherst College in Massachusetts. During World War II, he was a ball turret gunner in a B-24 plane in the South Pacific. He served as Superintendent of the El Paso County Livestock Show and Rodeo, Director of the El Paso Valley Cotton Association, President of the Farmers' Gin, and Democratic Chairman of Precinct 90 for thirty years. He was a member of the El Paso County School Board, El Paso County Sheriff's Posse, and the El Paso Board of Realtors. Paul Farr Thomas passed away on April 14, 2007.

Series Description

Arranged in two series: Series I, the Paul D. Thomas Legal Files, 1915-1956, and Series II, the Paul F. Thomas Farming Records, 1948-1958.

Scope and Content Notes

Series I, the Paul D. Thomas Legal Files, contains two inches of material and deals with two legal cases. The first case in 1915-1917 is the Hipólito Villa jewelry claims. The second case from 1956, deals with land claims to a ranch in Chihuahua, Mexico by the Babícora Development Company of California.

The bulk of the material in this collection is in Series II, Paul F. Thomas Farming Records. Series II contains the records of Paul F. Thomas dealing with his ranch in Fabens, Texas from 1948-1958. This material is arranged in two sections, financial records and worker and production records. The financial records are comprised mostly of invoices, with some bank information. The worker records include correspondence, contracts, lists and receipts. The production records include correspondence, receipts, and pamphlets and reports from the Production Marketing Administration.

Provenance Statement

In 1999, the Special Collections Department purchased the Paul D. Thomas legal files from his son Paul F. Thomas. The Center for Immigration History acquired the Paul F. Thomas farming records from Mr. Thomas in 1999.
