Historical Sketch

Dr. Rob Morris, known as the Poet Laureate of Masonry, founded the Order of the Eastern Star during the nineteenth century. It is the largest worldwide fraternal organization whose membership includes both men and women. The Order of the Eastern Star is based on spiritual values and has approximately one million members under the General Grand Chapter. Its stated purposes are: Charitable, Educational, Fraternal, and Scientific. Members also support national and local charities and many Grand Jurisdictions have homes for senior citizen members. Local El Paso chapters include Woodbine Chapter No. 738, Ysleta Chapter No. 991, and Wallace Hughston Chapter No. 1100.

Founded in Seattle, Washington during 1913, the Daughters of the Nile is an international women's fraternal organization. Members must be eighteen years old and related through birth or marriage to a Shriner, Master Mason, or a Daughter of the Nile. There are 147 Temples throughout the United States and Canada. Members donate money and volunteer time to their main charitable cause, Shriner hospitals, and also support children's charities. The Rosetta Temple is El Paso's local chapter.

Series Description or Arrangement

The El Paso Women's Fraternal Organizations collection is arranged in two series:

Series I. Scrapbooks

Series is arranged in two subseries: Order of the Eastern Star and Daughters of the Nile. Materials are arranged in the original order of the scrapbooks.

Series II. Other material

Series is arranged chronologically.

Scope and Content Notes

The El Paso Women's Fraternal Organizations collection dates 1969 – 1982, 2007 – 2008, bulk 1981 – 1982. Arranged in two series, Scrapbooks and Other Material, these records document the activities and membership of the Order of the Eastern Star and the Daughters of the Nile. The Scrapbooks series contains scrapbooks filled with photographs, clippings, programs, invitations, greeting cards, and assorted memorabilia. The Other Material series includes an obituary of an Eastern Star member.
